Mohawk Valley Garlic & Herb Festival, Saturday, September, 2018

The festival showcases locally grown or handmade products. Thousands attend the aromatic festivities in Sterziner Park at Canal Place, on the Erie Canal, with more than fifty vendors selling their wares. Our garlic vendors have been part of the festival for many years, and this year, will be joined by specialty food vendors, herb plant and product vendors, juried "green" artisans, and a fine selection of locally produced food product vendors. This year's festival promises to offer the very best of the locally grown and produced garlic and herb products. A $3.00 donation per person or $10 family/group rate at the gate supports the festival with 1/3 supporting the Mohawk Valley Center For

The Arts. Free parking with shuttle bus service is available. Completely accessible, fun for the whole family! Goto mvghf.com for details.
